NOTICE OF RIGHTS
Of Interested Persons During Independent Administration and Form of Petition To Terminate Independent Administration

A copy of an Order is enclosed granting independent administration of the decedent's estate. This means that the executor or administrator will not have to obtain court orders or file estate papers in court during probate. The estate will be administered without court supervision unless an interested person asks the court to become involved.

Under 755 ILCS 5/28-4 any interested person may terminate independent administration at any time by mailing or delivering a petition to terminate to the Clerk of the Court. However, if there is a will which directs independent administration, independent administration will be terminated only if the Court finds there is good cause to require supervised administration, and if the petitioner is a creditor or non-residuary legatee, independent administration will be terminated only if the Court finds that termination is necessary to protect the petitioner's interest.

A petition is substantially the form which is printed on the reverse side (or page 2) of this notice may be used to terminate independent administration.

In addition to the right to terminate independent administration, any interested person may petition to Court to hold a hearing and resolve any particular question that may arise during independent administration, even though supervised administration has not been requested (755 ILCS 5/28-5). The independent representative must mail a copy of the estate inventory and final account to each interested person before the estate can be closed (755 ILCS 5/28.6 and 755 ILCS 5/28-11). Any interested person has the right to question or object to any item included in or omitted from an inventory or account or to insist on a full court accounting of all receipts and disbursements with prior notice, as required on supervised administration (755 ILCS 5/28-11).
